Startling Mortality.

Statistics show startling mortality, from appendicitis and peritonitis. To prevent and cure these awful diseases, there is just one reliable remedy. Dr. King's New Life Pills. M. Flannery, of 14 Custom House Place, Chicago, says: "They have no equal for Constipation and biliousness," 25c at T. E. Paul's druggist.

LOCAL NEWS.

No sickness of a serious nature in this place.

Born, to the wife of Dallas Gabbert, on the 18th, a daughter.

Hurt Bros., Laundry will be in operation in a very few days.

The dormitory at the Presbyterian College is about completed.

Mr. J. V. White is a candidate for magistrate in this district.

E. F. Rowe has left at this office a sweet potato 31 inches long.

Columbia needs a bakery. Can not some enterprising gentleman start one?

S. C. Neat is building a residence near where his father lives, four miles from Columbia.

B. B. Redman has left at this office a peculiarly shaped rock. It resembles in shape a man's foot, so says Mr. Redman.

Lovers of music should not fail to hear Mr. Ohlenmacher in his recital at the Presbyterian church, this city, next Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church will have their lawn fete on Friday evening from seven to ten at Mrs. Azbill's. Everybody cordially invited. Refreshments 15 cents.

Mr. J. M. Russell, our efficient postmaster, has ordered a section of 104 of keyless lock boxes. It is expected the last of this week. It will be a convenience that the postoffice at this place has long needed.

Hon. Geo. Nell is now wearing a very pleasant look. He says that fortune has smiled upon him and that he is now riding in chaises and that the fellows whom fortune frowned upon, and who walk by-jazes, do not bother him.

Dr. W. T. Grissom has exhibited a curiosity at this office in the way of a worm. It is six inches long, one inch in diameter, has horns and fights with its tail. It is the only one of the kind been found in this section and is attracting a great deal of curiosity.

Last Monday was the biggest mule and horse day ever seen in Columbia. Buyers and sellers were here from Russell, Casey, Taylor, Green, Metcalfe, Harden, Cumberland and about one hundred changed hands. Prices are given in another item.

Mr. G. P. Burrell, the lumber dealer, a staunch friend of the News and an all round clever gentleman, has the thanks of this office for a 45-pound watermelon, the largest and most delicious cut in the office this season. Mr. Marion Rice, of Taylor county, grew it.

Mr. Claud Hobson, who was a citizen of Campbellsville, has located in Columbia and has removed his family. Mr. Hobson is a good citizen and has an excellent little family, and our people are glad that he has chosen Columbia for his future home. He resides in one of the cottages near the M. and F. High School.

Rabbits and squirrels cannot be shot until the 15th of November, the time for hunting having expired last Friday.

According to an amendment to the game law, enacted March 21, 1902, it is unlawful to kill, pursue or have in possession when so killed any rabbit or squirrel during the forbidden period. Rabbits, however, can be caught with dogs or snares. The penalty is a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $25.00.

Eld. A. L. Oder, pastor of the Christian Church here, has been conducting a very successful meeting at Mt. Pleasant for the past week. We do not know the number of confessions since the meeting begun, but last Thursday there were five. Eld. Oder is a strong, forcible speaker and large congregations have been hearing him. We are told that the services will likely continue through this week.

Mrs. Andrew Paxton, who lived near Greensburg and who was the mother of Mr. A. W. Paxton, this county, died Friday morning after an illness of six weeks. She was a consistent Christian, a member of the M. E. Church South. She leaves a husband and six children. The funeral was preached by Rev. W. H. C. Sandidge Saturday morning at 8 o'clock. The News extends its sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mr. James W. Nelson, a native of this county, who has been in the Confederate home, Pewee Valley, for several years, recently had one of his legs amputated. The stump is healing rapidly and Mr. Nelson writes his cousin, Mr. H. C. Walker, Gradyville, that he thinks he will be well enough to take his crutches in three weeks. He wants the delegates to the Grand Lodge in this county to call and see him at the October meeting.

Miss Effie Bradshaw has been in the wholesale market for the past two weeks and will return this week with the nicest and most up-to-date stock of goods that has ever been brought to this market. She invites all the ladies of this and adjoining counties to give her a call. Thanking her customers for their very liberal patronage in the season just past, she asks them for a continuance of same this Fall and Winter.

The last Quarterly meeting of the year for the Columbia charge will be held at Tabor next Saturday and Sunday. Rev. S. G. Shelley will preach both days. This will be his last quarterly meeting as Presiding Elder of this district. He will preach at Columbia next Sunday evening.

Preaching Next Sunday.

J. L. Adkins, Salem.

J. P. Scruggs, Gradyville.

W. C. Clemens, Columbia.

A. L. Oder, Columbia.

E. N. Early, Russell Springs.

Z. T. Williams, Creelsboro.

W. H. C. Sandidge, New Union.

J. F. Barger, Freedom.

F. E. Lewis, Tabor.

J. H. Nicholson, Pleasant Ridge.

W. S. Dudgeon, Hutchinson School house.

Musical Recital.

Mr. C. Fredric Ohlenmacher, director of music in the Columbia M. & F. High School, will give a recital at the Presbyterian church, this city, on Friday evening, September the 22nd. Mr. Ohlenmacher is one of the best pianists in Southern Kentucky, and will no doubt be greeted by a large audience at his first recital here. Admission to the public.

Mrs. Laura Feece Dead.

Last Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock Mrs. Laura Feece, wife of Mr. James Feece, whose home was in the suburbs of Columbia, succumbed to the inevitable and peacefully passed over the River of Death. She was forty-nine years old and a consistent Christian lady, having been a member of the Christian Church for a number of years. She was a victim of consumption and was confined to her room a number of months before the end came. She was a sister of Mr. Scott Montgomery, this place. She leaves a husband and a number of children. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Lewis and the interment was in the city cemetery.

F. M. BREEDING DEAD.

F. M. Breeding, an aged and well-known man of this city, died unexpectedly yesterday afternoon. Selby T. Breeding, of St. Louis, a former local newspaper man, is his son. Last winter Mr. Breeding slipped on the ice and remained in the sleet in a semi-conscious condition all night. He never recovered from the exposure.—Bowling Green cor. Evening Post.

The deceased was a native of Adair county, the oldest son of James Breeding, the pioneer Methodist preacher of this section. He was an excellent citizen. About twenty-five years ago he took the contract and built the Baptist church at Columbia.

Circuit Court.

The crowd in town at the opening of circuit court was perhaps the largest seen here for several years. The square and all the streets were crowded with people.

Judge Baker convened court promptly at 9 o'clock and by the noon hour the grand jury was instructed. The instructions were as usual, covering all the crimes known to the law.

The following compose the Juries:

GRAND JURY.

W. F. Neat, E. J. Clark, W. E. Leach, G. G. Campbell, Chris Burten, F. A. Lewis, Loney Dudley, W. L. Fletcher, J. H. Hovious, J. R. Christie, Irvine Blair, foreman.
